Please answer the questions in the section below if your child is being Home-Schooled:

1. Please describe a typical instructional day for your child (duration of time spent on a subject or project, types of lessons, etc)
2. What opportunities does your child have to socialize with peers of the same age, and how often do these opportunities occur?
3. How do you feel your child will handle the transition from home-schooling into a more formally structured day (8:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.)?
4. Describe any special learning needs or considerations your child may require (e.g. advanced skill areas, areas in need of remediation, identified areas of learning support).

Our Expected School-wide Learning Results create students who are:
Academic Achievers, Critical Thinkers, Effective Communicators, Involved Citizens and Self-Directed Learners
